

Photos from 2011 Perry Mesa Symposium

Master of Ceremonies - Bryan Lausten, Agua Fria National Monument Archaeologist.

Melissa Kruse-Peeples
Arizona State University - SHESC
PhD Candidate, Archaeology
"Prehistoric Settlement Organization across Perry Mesa: Considerations of Settlement Size, Distribution and Chronological Indicators."

Arleyn Simon
Arizona State University - SHESC,
Director Archaeological Research Institute.
"Overview of ASU's Perry Tank Canyon Survey"

Christopher Caseldine
Arizona State University
"Friends in High Places: A Defensive Hilltop Site on the Middle Agua Fria River"

Scott Courtright
Logan Simpson Design,
Archaeologist
"Stone Camp: A 10th - 14 Century
Quarrying Community"

Bill Nightwine
TNF Heritage Program Volunteer
"Darwinian Gestures in Gila style petroglyphs"

Jerome (Jerry) Ehrhardt
AZ Archaeological Society, Verde
Valley Chapter
"Indian Trails of Trade that led to Perry Mesa"

David Abbott
ASU - SHESC, Associate Professor of Anthropology
"Persistent Connectivity across Central Arizona during the 14th Century: Evaluating the Verde Confederacy Model with Ceramics from Perry Mesa"

Will Russell
Arizona State University - SHESC,
Doctorial Student in Archaeology.
"Archaeological Race Track Features in North Central Arizona"

Scott Ingram

Arizona State University, Adjunct Professor

"Climatic, Demographic, and Environmental Influences on Perry Mesa and Central Arizona Settlement Patterns"

Cliff Hersted

Arcosanti

"The Perry Mesa Map Petroglyph: A Cartographic Encounter in the Agua Fria National Monument"

Daniel Sorrell

EcoPlan Associates, Project Director

"Exploring Architectural Variability at Antler House Village and Some Other Sites in the Hohokam Northern Periphery"

William D. (Byl) Bryce
EcoPlan Associates, Archaeologist and M.A Lithic Analyst
*"Projectile Point Manufacturing
Methods and Morphological Diversity, A Case Study from Antler House Village"*

Richard Ahlstrom
HRA, Inc. Conservation
Archaeology, Archaeologist
"Perry Mesa Today: An Assessment of Current Archaeological Knowledge Relative to the 'State of the Art' as of 15 to 20 Years Ago."